CrossRoads Church, Norfolk, Gives the Gift of Wheels

Regina Jordan is a popular crossing guard at a local elementary school where many of the church’s children attend.

Spence Network Uptick Alum Kevin Tremper, pastor at CrossRoads, noted that “Miss Regina” has a big personality and is friendly and funny.

Recently, Miss Regina’s 20-year-old van became unserviceable and she needed a new ride. According to an article published in the Virginian-Pilot, church members saw the need and stepped in and collected over $16,000 for an SUV with relatively low miles.

To make sure a “blessing doesn’t become a burden,” the church covered the vehicle with a three-year warranty, some prepaid maintenance, and one year’s worth of insurance.

“I was knocked off my feet,” Miss Regina said.

What a blessing for both Miss Regina and the members of CrossRoads Church.
