"So watch your step. Use your head. Make the most of every chance you get. These are desperate times! Don’t live carelessly, unthinkingly. Make sure you understand what the Master wants.”
(Ephesians 5:15-17, The Message)

What is the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions?
The annual offering for Virginia missions was named for Alma Hunt (1909-2008), a native Virginian who was known worldwide for her missions service and her unswerving dedication to the cause of Christ. Churches and individuals may contribute at any time. The offering provides funding for all Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV) missions and ministries and makes possible other special ministries, outreach projects, and initiatives not funded through regular streams of giving.

Since 1976, this offering has been a joint venture of WMUV and the Baptist General Association of Virginia (BGAV). The annual goal and allocation of funds are determined by the Executive Director/Treasurer of WMUV and the Executive Director of the BGAV and approved by their respective boards.

The stories you will read in this prayer guide are of real people and real ministries, and all are recipients of some financial support from this offering. Every dollar you give goes directly to support these and many other ministries.

When you give to the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions you are working with other Virginia Baptists as we share the love of Christ with a world in crisis and help to further the work of God’s Kingdom. Together, we make it count!
