Say “Yes” to CrossRoads Camp

At CrossRoads, campers connect with God in a new way through worship, Bible study, the breathtaking nature that surrounds them, and a staff who cares deeply about them. Upon realizing how completely God loves them, their eyes open to how much God loves all of those He created and how they can be part of sharing that wonderful news with the world. Worshiping together and serving each other builds Christian community as campers interact with their peers and leaders.

A healthy confidence in oneself is another benefit of camp. Through activities like the high ropes course, campers are encouraged and challenged to try something new. Achieving their goals helps them gain the courage that is needed to step out in faith and in following Jesus.

Away from the distractions of their lives, campers have a chance to hear the call of God and to say yes!

Pray that parents and leaders will commit to exposing their children to a missional camping experience.

Since 1976, the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions has been a joint venture of the BGAV and Woman’s Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV). The offering provides funding for all Woman’s Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV) missions and ministries and makes possible other special ministries, outreach projects, and initiatives not funded through regular streams of giving.

When you give to the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions you are working with other Virginia Baptists to say “Yes!” as we share the love of Christ with a world in crisis and help to further the work of God’s Kingdom.
