Say “Yes” to Venturers

Last summer, Stephen Stepp was serving with his youth group at Impact Mission camps when he heard a challenge to consider what God might be asking him to do after camp. He learned about Venturers and serving with BGAV partners around the world. In the weeks after, he felt God calling him to serve in Vienna with Projekt Gemeinde. As a student in Government and International Politics, his educational goals and missional calling seemed perfectly aligned with his upcoming experience.

Stepp quickly realized in Vienna that he was not bringing God anywhere – God was already working through the vibrant church community that had grown up and responded to the needs of refugees fleeing persecution. They were ready to experience God’s love. He has found a community of believers who invest themselves in loving their brothers and sisters in Christ.

Stephen is one of seven Venturers who are currently serving or preparing to serve God throughout the world. In addition to those who serve for terms of six months to two years, 13 students will be serving as Summer Venturers in a variety of ministries with international and state partners.

Pray for Venturers as they wrestle with their role in God’s mission, examine God’s call in their own lives, and work to expand their worldview to see themselves and others as God sees them.

Since 1976, the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions has been a joint venture of the BGAV and Woman’s Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV). The offering provides funding for all Woman’s Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV) missions and ministries and makes possible other special ministries, outreach projects, and initiatives not funded through regular streams of giving.

When you give to the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions you are working with other Virginia Baptists to say “Yes!” as we share the love of Christ with a world in crisis and help to further the work of God’s Kingdom.
