Because of You...

...a large number of volunteers attended Mission Matters in Lynchburg—many of them participating in the disaster-response track. While there, they provided food for conference attendees as part of their training. Want to volunteer? Learn more at BGAVDR.org.

...several groups of college students from Baptist Collegiate Ministries across Virginia went on mission after their spring semester finished. This group from the William & Mary BCM traveled to Nagaland in eastern India, where among many activities, they met with the Chief Minister of Nagaland.

We are thankful for your church’s support of these BGAV missions and ministries.
