Say “Yes” to Abigail Girls Mission Project

Developing Kingdom Leaders is a value of WMU. The Abigail Girls program is leadership development in missions for girls in 4th – 6th grade.

After learning about under-resourced schools in southwest Virginia, one girl said, “I hated it when there was not enough PE equipment for everyone.” The other young ladies agreed and out of that conversation, the WMUV Abigail Girls decided their mission project was to raise money and give it to the PE Department of Dryden Elementary in Lee County, Virginia.

During the next ten months, these four girls made jewelry, made scarves, sold lemonade, and hosted dinners to raise the money. By the end of the year, the Abigail Girls had raised over $5,000.

When delivering this gift to the school, they arrived at the small school nestled in the picturesque mountains of Southwest Virginia and were greeted by a warm and inviting staff. Delivering that love gift to Mr. Trenton, the PE teacher, and Mrs. Baker, Principal, was the highlight of their year. The PE Department was able to purchase much-needed equipment. This gift of love has certainly blessed the students.

These young Abigail Girls understand that the point of missions is to look beyond yourself and say yes to follow where Jesus leads.

Pray for students in under-resourced schools, that the Lord will supply their needs.

Since 1976, the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions has been a joint venture of the BGAV and Woman’s Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV). The offering provides funding for all Woman’s Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV) missions and ministries and makes possible other special ministries, outreach projects, and initiatives not funded through regular streams of giving.

When you give to the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions you are working with other Virginia Baptists to say “Yes!” as we share the love of Christ with a world in crisis and help to further the work of God’s Kingdom.
